

LANGUAGE LAB

Sree Narayana Polytechnic College, Kottiyam has a well-equipped language lab that facilitates the process of language learning. The lab, equipped with advanced software, helps students to improve their communication skills. Students get actively involved in the learning process through hands on participation and technology aided audio visual resources. Our language lab has proved to be an asset to our institution, by preparing the students for future job environments.